Re: Goldstein, et al. v. Solucorp, et al., Case No. 7:11-cv-06227 (VLB)

Dear Judge Davison:

We represent plaintiffs in the above-reference action. By Court Order dated August 3, 2015, plaintiffs were directed to provide this Court with a status update of this matter and the ongoing settlement discussions that were discussed at the May 8, 2015 conference held in this case.

With regard to defendant Michael Reidel, plaintiffs have reached a settlement in principle and are presently working to finalize a settlement agreement. Plaintiffs, despite considerable effort, have been unable to reach an acceptable agreement with any other defendant at this time but settlement negotiations remain ongoing. Plaintiffs are not optimistic that discussions with the other defendants will prove fruitful. Accordingly, plaintiffs are prepared to move forward to trial in this action against all defendants except Mr. Reidel. Since discovery in this matter closed on April 30, 2015, plaintiffs would like to schedule the trial as soon as possible. A conference before Judge Vincent L. Briccetti is presently scheduled for September 2, 2015 at 11:00 a.m.

Plaintiffs were likewise advised by this Court that they should endeavor to file a response to defendant Richard Greene's July 30, 2015 letter-request for summary relief (see ECF #187) on the previously-set August 10, 2015 opposition deadline, in light of the brevity of the submission and the fact that no other party has moved for summary relief.

Plaintiffs respectfully note that defendant Tyberg has likewise filed a letter in this action requesting summary relief. (See ECF # 184). And while plaintiffs are of the opinion that these unsupported, one-page "letter-motions" are facially and procedurally inadequate to support the
